

Ogemaw Heights High School
Daily Announcement
Monday, December 8, 2025

Congratulations to this week's Falcons of the Week - Sophie Morris, Isabella Jarrell, Ashlyn Bolyard, Kadie Pavelek. Please stop in the office during advisory to pick up your shirt, lunch, popcorn and slushy pass from Mrs. Rice.

Happy Birthday Mr. Powley!

The band will be releasing us today at 2:10pm so that we can all wish Landon Kups good luck today in the state finals for ESports!

NHS Students? Need volunteer hours? Angelfish is hosting a tri-swim meet on Saturday, December 13th. We are looking for help during the meet. You need to be at the pool by 9:00 am, and we should be done by 1:00 pm. Please let Mrs. Rice or Ms. Smiley know if you can help out.

Congratulations to all 4 of the Ogemaw wrestling teams. The JV team competed at the Midland Invitational on Friday and came away with a 1st place finish from Casey Roznowski, a second place finish from Logan Tierney and at least one win from 6 different wrestlers.

On Saturday the Varsity A team traveled to Cadillac to compete in a tough 6 team tournament. They came home with three wins and two undefeated wrestlers: Roman Goulette and Calvin Marshall. Conner Lambert, Jackson Ziegler and Zane Morely finished the day 4-1.

The varsity B team competed at Swan Valley and had 6 of the 10 wrestlers earn 2 or more wins. Nolan Dowell and Aydan Johnson earned 3 wins a piece.

The girls wrestling team competed at Swan Valley on Sunday. Ainsley McGeathy earned a 2nd place finish and Hanna O'Neil earned a third place medal. Way to go Falcon wrestlers!

If you're a fan of history, you may have heard this phrase: "The Buck Stops Here". President Harry S. Truman had a sign on his desk that said just that. It meant that responsibility wasn't something to be ignored or passed onto another person. It meant that decisions had to be made, actions had to be taken, and consequences had to be accepted. If you've ever had to make a big decision and take responsibility for the outcome, then our word is for you: Accountability. Accountability is the obligation or willingness to accept responsibility for one's own actions and the result of those actions. It is when you have to answer for something you've done - and whether or not you've met expectations and obligations. Here it is in a sentence: It may be easier to blame others instead of accepting accountability, but in the end, you are the one who must accept the outcomes of your actions. See Mr. Pilarski if you're interested in earning prizes based on our Word of the Week.
